

Monday June 21st, 2033.

Today I learned about raye, the new power Danny has "invented." Sounds innocuous enough, a power that apparently doesn't even appear to work. But I agree with Danny, raye will be a fundamental power. I just know I'll be right again.

Danny is including it in his notebook, but we won't tell anyone about it. I'm sure someone will find it... eventually.
